Costs of auditor's certificate according to Section 8.2 below, is an eligible cost up to SEK 30 000.

Universities and higher education establishments may calculate its indirect costs according to the full-cost principle applied by them. Universities and higher education establishments only need to keep costs corresponding to the grant separated from other transactions in their accounts.

Other Participants may add actual indirect costs, however not exceeding an amount corresponding to 30 % of its eligible personnel costs.

Excluded from eligible costs are (1) costs incurred in connection with conclusion of the Project Agreement, (2) costs for licenses, or similar costs, when charged between Participants and (3) costs incurred by a Participant during insolvency, (4) costs for work carried out by employees at a university or higher education establishment which is non-compliant with rules on such employee's outside activities, and (5) costs for a participating person who, as employee or service provider, has performed work also for another Participant and this is not the result of a change of regular employer.

When Vinnova requires that a foreign organisation shall have a branch or a place of operations in Sweden to be eligible for a grant, the Beneficiary's costs shall be attributable to the branch or place of operations to be eligible.

6.2 Payments

The payment plan is preliminary and can be adjusted depending on the Beneficiary's actual use of funds. A prerequisite for the first payment of a grant is that the Start report and copies of all Participant Approvals have been received by Vinnova on time, including any requested additional information.

In addition to implementing the project in accordance with the decision, including its terms and conditions, and Project Description, a prerequisite for continued payments is that reports have been received by Vinnova on time, including any requested additional information.

If any Participant is insolvent Vinnova is entitled to change the conditions for payments.

If payments cannot be made during the calendar year to which they have been allocated, for reasons attributable to a Participant, the Beneficiary forfeits the right to these funds. However, Vinnova may decide to reallocate the funds to the next calendar year.

6.3 Repayment

A Beneficiary who has received payments exceeding the amount it is entitled to according to the decision, is obliged to repay such amount to Vinnova. A Beneficiary is never entitled to more than the lower of the amounts that follow from the maximum Aid Intensity and the maximum grant amount, respectively.

Upon approval of the final report, Vinnova will notify the Coordinator of any repayment obligation and the amount to be repaid. Repayment shall be made within 30 days from Vinnova's notification.

The obligation to repay in accordance with the above also occurs if the project is cancelled.

6.4 Set-off

Vinnova is entitled to set off a claim against a Beneficiary, arisen in another project, against unpaid financial contribution to the same Beneficiary in this project.

§ 7 Use of results and dissemination etc.

7.1 Use of results

The Participants shall use project results in accordance with a plan for use. Use means, for example commercialisation, licensing and publication. In case of publication consideration shall be taken to a Participant's need to protect intellectual property and trade secrets. Scientific publications relating to results of the project must be published open access in accordance with Vinnova's instruction.<sup>4</sup>

Beneficiaries may not transfer or grant licences to project results, or in any other way take any measure that results in indirect state aid.

Vinnova claims no ownership of project results.

7.2 Right of use of project results and background information<sup>5</sup>

If, for the implementation of the project, a Participant needs access to or use of another Participant's project results, that Participant shall be entitled thereto to the extent necessary without paying compensation.

If, for the implementation of the project, a Participant needs access to or use of another Participant's background information, that Participant shall be entitled thereto to the extent necessary.

If a Participant, in order to use its own project results (also including jointly owned project results), needs access to or use of another Participant's project results or background information, that Participant shall be granted such rights to the extent necessary.

A Participant that holds background information is, until the signing of the Project Agreement, or by special agreement with the Participants, entitled to exclude background information from a Participant's right pursuant to this section.

Background information means, for example, inventions (patented, patentable or not patentable), know-how, copyright, registered designs and access rights to third-party rights held by a Participant and which are of importance for the implementation of the project.

7.3 Acknowledgement of Vinnova as a financier

When informing about the project and when making project results public, it shall be stated that the work has been performed with support from Vinnova (in English the name shall be given as Sweden's Innovation Agency). Making public means, for example, publishing regardless of form or medium and oral presentations.

7.4 Vinnova's right to disseminate information from the project

Vinnova has the right to reproduce and disseminate all or parts of reports from the project and to otherwise disseminate information from and about the project, provided no information covered by confidentiality is disclosed.

§ 8 Audit

8.1 Audit

Vinnova, or person(s) appointed by Vinnova, e.g. certified accountant or evaluator, has the right to audit the project and view documents that can provide information on financial, technical or other circumstances in the project. A Participant shall then, at own cost, provide all the necessary material. This right applies during the Project time and ten (10) years after the final payment.

8.2 Auditor's certificate

If a Beneficiary's maximum granted amount according to the decision is SEK three (3) million or more, an auditor's certificate shall be attached to the final report. Universities and higher education establishments are exempt from the obligation to provide auditor's certificates.

Regardless of the above, an auditor's certificate shall be attached to a report if it is stated in the decision or in a special clause.

The certificate must be completed according to Vinnovas instructions<sup>6</sup>. The audit shall be performed by a certified accountant.

For municipalities, county councils, governmental agencies, an auditor's certificate from professional local government auditor or certified internal auditor is also acceptable.

§ 9 Sanctions

Vinnova may decide that an approved grant, in whole or in part, will not be paid if

1. the applicant or the recipient, by submitting incorrect information or by other means, has caused the grant to be approved or paid on an incorrect basis or with an excessive amount,
2. the grant, for some other reason, has been approved or paid on an incorrect basis or with an excessive amount, and the recipient should have realised this,
3. the grant has not been used or spent, or there is reason to believe that the grant will not be used or spent, for the purpose stated in the grant decision, or
4. the terms and conditions of the grant are not met.

A Beneficiary is liable to repay if any of the grounds specified in points 1, 2 or 4 above exists, or if the grant has not been used or spent for the purpose stated in the grant decision. Vinnova will, after a specific decision, claim repayment of the grant, in whole or in part, and interest in accordance with the Interest Act (1975:635).

If the grant constitutes unlawful state aid, Vinnova will recover the contribution plus interest from the day of payment in accordance with lagen (2013:388) om tillämpning av Europeiska unionens statsstödsregler.

§ 10 Amendments and addendums

Amendments or addendums to Vinnova's decision shall be made in writing in order to be valid.

Vinnova has the right to make decisions concerning amendments or addendums to the advantage of a Participant.
